Financial Aid Night

When: Wednesday, December 1, 2010 @ 7:00 pm

Where: Tri-City High School, All-Purpose Room

During this one-hour program, you'll gain an understanding of how the college financing process works, including a look at...

- How to plan for and manage college costs
- The affordability myth of public versus private colleges and universities
- Types of financial aid that are available
- Options your family has in developing a college funding strategy
- Ways to navigate the college financial aid process
- How colleges and universities look at a divorced household
- How to send your child to college without risking your family's financial future

Helpful literature will be available to all persons who attend this presentation. Parents and students will have ample opportunities to ask questions of the seminar presenter.

If meeting today's educational costs is a concern for you, it is recommended that you and your son or daughter attend this seminar. The information discussed will apply to any and all types of post-secondary education.
