

Minutes from Jan 6, 2010 – Open Session:

Meeting was called to order and all board members' were present
Mr. Brunson opened the floor to the public who wished to speak on agenda items.

Mr. Schumaker spoke in reference to the appreciation he feels towards Mr. Schupp in his role as principal of Tri-City CUSD #1, JH / HS. He speaks about the hard work he believes Mr. Schupp has shown and the care in which Mr. Schupp shows towards students in the District. He mentions that he understands there are serious allegations in reference to Mr. Schupp but wants to express his support; he says he owes it to Mr. Schupp.

Mr. Brunson responds with appreciation to Mr. Schumaker and thanks him for his support and care for the district.

Mrs. Hunt then addresses the Board; She begins by reading a letter to the Board. Mr. Bruno stops this process due to the nature of the information. Mr. Bruno asks that this be addressed in closed session and not open due to the personnel issues that are arising for an employee of the district. Mrs. Hunt then generalizes the overall topic; she claims that everyone should be able to look up to a person in charge of students and due to circumstances that she understands the draw for home schooling.

Mr. Brunson addresses and thanks the Hunts for their presentation and care for the district.

A motion was then made by Marvin and seconded by Bedolli to go into closed session
